

VILLA, UNHURT, HEADED FOR PARRAL

BANDIT LEADS AMERICAN PURSUERS BY SIXTY MILES

INFORMATION IS RECEIVED IN EL PASO FROM RELIABLE SOURCES

Man Who Brings Story Gives Circumstantial Account of Bandit's Maneuvers and Plan of Campaign—Mexicans Give Pershing Much Misleading Information—Has Difficulty in Procuring Reliable Guides.

EL PASO, Texas, April 3.—Francisco Villa, unwounded and accompanied by only eight men was at Satevo, fifty miles south Chihuahua City two days ago, according to information received here today from Mexican sources which have proved usually reliable in the past.

If this information is correct it bears out previous reports that the bandit chief is headed toward Parral and is leading his American pursuers by at least sixty miles. The nearest point to Satevo which the Americans troops are known to have reached is San Antonio, sixty miles to the northwest.

The route said to have been taken by Villa is one with which he is thoroughly familiar, known among the peons as "Pancho's Road."

Gives Plan of Campaign.

From Guerrero it leads across the continental divide thru the Rabinha pass into a broad valley which runs east to San Andres, Villa's old headquarters, thence south to Santa Isabel, the scene of Villa's massacre of eighteen mining men, and then southeast thru Satevo to Parral. The man who brought the story of Villa's arrival at Satevo here gave a circumstantial account of the bandit's maneuvers and plan of campaign. While his story is impossible of verification his own credibility is vouched for by reputable business men here who have employed him for several years.

"Villa," he said, "has never taken part in any fighting with either American or Carranza troops. He left the main body of his troops in Guerrero district with orders to oppose as far as they could the American advance. At the same time the peons were instructed to give information freely to American officers, always provided that the information was false. The story of Villa being wounded was carefully concocted for the express purpose of misleading General Pershing and Colonel Dodd into the belief that the bandit was in hiding in the mountains and thereby inducing them to split their forces into small searching parties who would waste their time in the wild Sierras, while Villa was making his way safely southward."

Story Given Color.

This part of the story is given color by the admission of General Pershing today that his intelligence department has been given much misleading information and that it was becoming more difficult to secure reliable guides.

Continuing his story the man said: "The American officers were fooled at first but they have a fair knowledge of the real situation now and the advance column is driving southeast with all the speed they can command. Their only chance of catching up with Villa is that they have a good road and should not be handicapped by the big problem of forage and water. The trail from San Antonio to Satevo leads thru a broad valley where there is generally plenty of water at this time of the year which is fairly fertile and well cultivated. Of course the peon farmers will try to conceal their grain but American gold and silver will be a temptation many of them will be unable to resist."

"If they catch up with Villa before he gets into the Terreon district they ought to be able to kill or capture him but if he is able to join forces with Canuto Reyes they will have a difficult task ahead of them."

Mexican officials here and in Juarez refused to discuss the probability of Villa being close to Parral, but they showed no inclination to belittle the story.

General Gavira, the Juarez commander, said he had no direct news from the front as the wires between Juarez and Casas Grandes were again out of commission due to heavy storms.

Fear Becomes Conviction. San Antonio, Texas, April 3.—The fear expressed yesterday at army headquarters that Francisco had escaped from the region in which General Pershing's cavalry columns are operating became a conviction today. No report from Mexico stated that he had disappeared but all information secured indicated that he was gone.

General Pershing's report received after noon, contained the news that at least a part of the dispersed Villa force that was driven from Guerrero March 29, still was moving in the district northeast of that place, but no mention of Villa's whereabouts was made. The report was dated yesterday.

Six columns of cavalry were yet riding in the hills and plains in that section, while scouts were endeavoring to pick up the trail of the scattered bands as well as that of their fugitive chief.

One force of Villa's men estimated at 100, commanded by Colonel Beltran, was located near Bacinova about 25 miles northeast of Guerrero, and information was gathered that indicated the remainder of the four or five hundred soldiers were in that region.

No reference was made in that report of an encounter which was mentioned in press despatches from the front.

Receive Much Misinformation.

Information gathered from various sources and confirmed by General Pershing indicated that the intelligence officers of the punitive force were having to contend with difficulties created by the receipt of misinformation liberally supplied in districts thru which Villa or his followers had passed.

General Pershing also reported that he had difficulty in procuring reliable guides.

His statement that it had been reported to him that Colonel Cano had engaged a Villa force in a fight on the same day that the Americans were driving the bandits from Guerrero, served to ally somewhat the fear that had arisen here that Cano had revolted, a report that appeared well founded. Which way Villa has gone is now largely a question for General Pershing's scouts to answer.

It was pointed out at General Funston's headquarters that once the trail was picked out, the troops would resume the chase further into the interior altho it was realized that this second phase of the punitive expedition's work will be far more difficult than was the first. It is not improbable, it was said that more troops than those already in Mexico, will be required.

The topography of the country south of Guerrero is such that successful pursuit can be conducted only by a wide deploying of forces and the utilization of the large part of the infantry. It was pointed out that the further the troops penetrate into Mexico the greater will be the necessity for strengthening the lines of communication. From the border to the extreme southern positions the advanced posts already have travelled 300 miles when there is taken into account the twistings of the trails they have travelled.

Railroad is Not Being Used.

The Mexico Northwestern railroad is not being used yet, partly, it was reported here due to a failure of General Gavira and General Bell to reach an agreement.

The timely placing in service of more motor trucks alleviated temporarily the supply situation however, and General Pershing reported today that motor trucks now are delivering supplies to a point south of Namiquipa almost 200 miles from the border. The aeroplanes are being used for communication between Colonia Dublan and the front and that means soon will be supplemented by a wagon wireless set that has been sent forward to one of the advanced bases.

Convinced of Co-Operation.

Washington, April 3.—Evidence of co-operation by Carranza troops with the American forces hunting Villa apparently disposing finally of rumors that Colonel Cano and his command had deserted to Villa came to the war department. He reported an engagement on March 29th, presumably near Guerrero, between Cano's troops and one of the bands into which Colonel Dodd scattered the main Villa force. As this clash in which Manuel Boco, leader of the outlaws, is said to have been killed, occurred on the same day that Colonel Dodd struck the Villa army, officials were convinced that the Carranza columns were actively co-operating with the Americans.

"This seems to dispose finally of the rumor of disloyalty on the part of Colonel Cano," Secretary Baker said in a formal statement.

Previous reports had caused officials to doubt Cano's loyalty and General Pershing's dispatch was received with great satisfaction. The fact that three days elapsed after the 48 hour old report of Colonel Dodd's engagement before news came of the Cano fight, renewed hopes that important subsequent events have not yet been reported to headquarters. That some supplies and forage for the cavalry, even if of poor quality were being obtained "off the country" by General Pershing's forces, was another encouraging feature of the latest reports. The general said corn of inferior quality was plentiful and that beef cattle of sufficient quantity had been secured.

State department officials denied during the day a report that inquiry had been made of General Carranza regarding troops movements in northern Mexico. Neither the state nor the navy department had disquieting information of any kind. The American consul at Monterey advised the state department that excitement there following the Columbus massacre and entrance of American troops into Mexico had completely subsided. Navy department despatches reported all quiet on both east and west Mexican coasts.

DR. T. B. SACHS, AUTHORITY ON TUBERCULOSIS, A SUICIDE

Death Comes as Climax to Controversy Over His Management of Chicago's Municipal Sanitarium.

Chicago, April 3.—Friends and members of lodges to which Dr. Theodore B. Sachs belonged are today completing arrangements for the funeral of the late head of the Chicago Municipal Tuberculosis Sanitarium and president of the National Tuberculosis Association, who was found dead of poison yesterday.

Dr. Sachs' body was found in a room of the Edwards sanitarium at Naperville, Ill., where he was chief of the medical staff. His death came as a climax to a controversy over his management of the municipal sanitarium. Statements by his friends asserted that charges of mismanagement broke his heart as he had devoted a long term of years to the institution. Charges of contractors who were engaged in part of the construction work of the sanitarium were to the effect that Dr. Sachs might have saved the city more than $100,000 by the use of greater care and better judgment.

SWANN WILL HAVE HUDSON EXAMINED BY PHYSICIANS

NEW YORK, April 3.—District Attorney Swan today became interested in the case of Clarence Reginald Hudson, alias Ernest Schiller, who single handed took possession of the British freight Steamship Mapho on the high seas. He interrogated Hudson and George Haller and Otto Milder who were arrested in connection with Hudson's alleged plots.

Mr. Swann said it was his intention to have Hudson examined by physicians, and the prisoner was taken back to the Tombs. He probably will be sent to a hospital tomorrow.

Earlier in the day the United States attorney announced that Hudson had not committed a breach of the federal laws in this district and he was released by the federal authorities.

DEMAND INQUIRY INTO LIVESTOCK INDUSTRY

REPRESENTATIVES OF GROWERS APPEAR BEFORE HOUSE SUB-COMMITTEE

Want Investigation Particularly as to Alleged Price Fixing by Body With Unlimited Powers of Subpoena.

Washington, April 3.—Disregarding an offer by the largest packing interests of the country to submit to an investigation by the department of agriculture representatives of livestock growers today appeared before a house judiciary sub-committee and demanded an inquiry into every angle of the industry, particularly as to alleged price fixing, by an inquisitorial body with unlimited powers of subpoena.

"If the producers and feeders want a real investigation," declared Walter L. Fischer, attorney for the market committee of the National Stock association. "They do not believe that other inquiries along this line have been real."

The subcommittee met to consider resolution introduced by Representative Borland of Missouri which would direct the federal trade commission to determine whether the packers are violating the anti-trust laws. Representatives of both packers and growers were present, but the only speakers today were Mr. Fischer and members of the committee. It probably will be several days before the packers have an opportunity to present their side of the case.

Representatives Borland, Doolittle of Kansas, Steele of Iowa, Kent of California, and Mr. Fischer spoke advocating an inquiry and contending that concrete evidence of the existence of a "packers combination" could be produced. There seemed to be general sentiment favoring broadening the scope of the Borland resolution. The burden of the statement of the case, made by Representatives Borland and Doolittle was that the packers kept the price of meats down during a period of great demand in 1915, and then, after agitation for an inquiry had been started this year advanced it materially in the face of increased receipts.

Tomorrow's session of the committee will be devoted to hearing other witnesses for the producers.

Washington, April 3.—Billy Sunday, the evangelist, was received today by President Wilson at the White House.

CALL OUT MILITIA TO CONTROL CROWD

MANY WINDOWS IN HAVERHILL, MASS., CITY HALL ARE BROKEN

Trouble Results from Attempt to Hold Meeting Regarded as Anti-Catholic—City Prison is Besieged.

Haverhill, Mass., April 3.—The local company of the state militia was called upon by Mayor Albert L. Bartlett tonight to assist the police in controlling a crowd of 5,000 people concerned in a riotous demonstration in the vicinity of city hall. Many windows in the building were broken by missiles.

The crowd assembled as a result of an attempt to hold a meeting in the hall for the discussion of state aid for sectarian schools. The meeting was regarded as anti-Catholic. Thos. E. Leyden of Somerville, who was announced as a former Roman Catholic priest, had been advertised as the speaker. When the hour for the meeting arrived the crowd in front of the hall was so dense that the police decided that the meeting could not be held at the door were closed.

For several hours the crowd increased in size by curious citizens, marched up and down the street shouting and committing various acts of minor mischief. Finding the police powerless, the mayor decided about eleven o'clock to call out the militia.

One section of the crowd around the building went to the residence of Dr. Herbert E. Wales and attacked the house.

Dr. Wales was interested in Leyden's coming here. The residence of Rev. Franklin B. B. another promoter of the meeting was treated in similar fashion. Part of the crowd went to the house of Alderman Charles Hoyt, commission of public safety and made a demonstration. The rooms of the National Club were attacked and the furnishings wrecked.

Squads of police were sent to guard the residences of the mayor and other members of the city government. The city prison in the basement of the city building was besieged. No arrests were reported. If any prisoners had been taken it would have been impossible to escort them thru the crowd.

By 11:30 o'clock however, the crowd had considerably diminished and the militia company appeared to have full control of the situation.

GERMANS SHELL BOURRUS WOOD

Teutons Straighten Line By Occupying French Positions

FIGHTING AROUND VAUX

French Re-occupy Western Part of Village Which They Had Previously Evacuated

SINK RUSSIAN TRANSPORT

Having straightened out their line by occupying all French positions north of the Forges Brook between Haucourt and Bethincourt, northwest of Verdun, the Germans now are engaged in shelling the region of the Bourrus Wood some five miles northwest of the fortress. East of the Meuse around Vaux there has been considerable fighting between the French and the Germans, in which the French were victorious in driving back the Teutons to the northern outskirts of the Caillotte wood, and in re-occupying the western part of the village of Vaux, which they had previously evacuated.

The occupation by the Germans of the Haucourt-Bethincourt front followed a vigorous attack in which, however, the Germans met no foe, the French having evacuated their positions at night without the Germans observing the movement. From their new positions south of the Forges brook and at Bethincourt the French poured a direct and a flanking fire into the attacking Germans, who suffered heavy casualties.

Aerial Combats near Verdun.

Along the remainder of the French front artillery bombardments have predominated, altho there have been aerial combats near Verdun in which the Germans lost four aeroplanes and aerial raids by the French on various German cantonnments in Belgium.

Artillery duels between the Germans and Russians continue on the eastern front. An attack by the Germans against the bridgehead of Iskull was repulsed by the Russians. The usual bombardments are in progress on the Austro-Italian line. Constantinople reports that the Turks, strongly reinforced have checked the Russian offensive in the Caucasus region and that the Ottoman forces have made advances in the Tchoruk Valley.

Petrograd, however asserts that the Russians have seized heavily fortified Turkish positions at an altitude of 10,000 feet on the upper Tchoruk and farther south have captured a Turkish position and dispersed Turkish cavalry detachments. In Arabia according to Constantinople the British bear Sheikh Osman have been driven from fortified position with heavy casualties and forced to retreat.

Sink Russian Transport.

The sinking by a Turkish submarine in the Black Sea on March 30th of a 12,000 ton Russian transport with troops aboard and of two other vessels on March 31st, is reported by the Turkish war office. It was on March 30th, that the Russian hospital ship Portugal was torpedoed and sunk in the Black Sea.

A British official statement says, that in the German air raid over Scotland Sunday night ten persons were killed and 11 injured. There were no casualties in the sections of England attacked by the raiders.

Berlin asserts that Edinburgh and Leith and points on the Firth of Forth and Tyne were visited by the Zeppelins and that violent explosions and numerous fires occurred both in Scotland and England. All the airships returned to their base.

Export Records.

American exports for February reached a total of $409,836,525 according to an announcement just made public by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, of the Department of Commerce. This is the highest point ever reached by the export trade in this country and exceeds the high mark for December, 1915, by $50,000,000. It exceeds the total for January by $83,000,000. The decline in January had been taken in some quarters to mean that the record figure for December had marked the high tide in the flow of American exports. The total exports for the first eight months of the fiscal year 1916 are $2,582,391,570 and it now seems probable that the exports for the whole fiscal year will reach $4,000,000,000. The increases are of commerce due to the war.

The First Pan American Child's Congress.

For the first time in history a Pan American conference has been called for the purpose of considering matters distinctively and specifically related to child welfare in the countries of the western hemisphere. It is to be known as the First Pan American Child's Congress, and is to be held during the month of July, 1916, in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

By this it is not meant that this is the first attempt to hold an international congress for child welfare. Such congresses have been heretofore held in the United States the scope of which was intended to be international.

"The purpose of the Congress," according to an editorial note in the Bulletin of the Pan American Union for March—"as outlined in the official program which has been published in Spanish and in English and which is being distributed throughout the countries of Pan America, is to study all matters relative to the child itself, in its relation to the family, to society and to the state. The program provides for the division of the multifarious subjects to be considered into seven principal sections, viz: Legislation, Hygiene, Education, Psychology and Anthropology, Aids to Mother and Child, Sociology, and Industrial Legislation. THE GOLDEN RULE

Remember that we all are brothers, so let's be good and kind to others, acknowledging their rights; why make Jones hotter than a hornet by playing on your flute or cornet when he would sleep o' nights? Why keep a swarm of hungry chickens, which cause more trouble than the dickens, as golden spring days pass, committing crimes no man can pardon, by scratching in the neighbor's garden, destroying garden sass? Why keep a dog that is so batty it thinks it is outclassing Patti, or even Annie Case, when it opens all the evening howling, and pouring diabolic yowling, in torrents thru its face? While of our goodly deeds we spelt, we're stirring up much bitter feeling by little, thoughtless sins; we keep a cow that makes Brown maddish, because it eats his early radish—why bark that neighbor's shins? In pious works our zeal is splendid; to see all vice and sorrow ended we go down in our jeans; and then we keep rooster nutty that crows until it jars the putty from neighbors' window panes.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

April 4, 1765—in a council held by the French commandant, St. Ange, in the presence of Lieutenant Ross, a British officer, the Illinois, Mississippi, and Osage tribes of Indians declared their intention to oppose by arms the transfer of the Illinois country from the French to the English, as required by the recent treaty which had closed the French and Indian war.

Elms a Great Asset.

There is an excellent lesson for Jacksonville people in the condition which exists in Harvard's famous "yard" at Cambridge, Mass. There the work of reforesting is soon to begin and famous elms will soon again command the university grounds. Arthur H. Lea of Philadelphia, a member of the class of 1880, has provided the funds for transplanting thirteen great elm trees secured from the country nearby. Special workers were secured to uproot the forty-year old elms that have been selected and they will be transported in such a way that every limb and root will be protected. The trees are to take the place of giant Harvard elms which have been destroyed by moths and other pests, thus eliminating one of the greatest beauties of Harvard scenery.

On this city people have awakened somewhat to the danger to the elms from insects, but that awakening has not been as thorough as should be. Everything should be done to protect the beautiful elms which line so many of the city streets, and while it is not possible here to replant such great trees as are to be moved to the Harvard yard, younger trees should fill the spaces wherever an old tree is dead or beyond saving. The loss of Jacksonville's elm trees would rob this city of its chief beauty.

UP TO THE PEOPLE.

The $100,000 bond issue for the extension of the light and water department of the city was proposed yesterday by the city council. Together with the reading of the ordinance providing for the election came a clean cut statement from the commissioners outlining their reasons for advocating a bond issue at this time. The statement clearly sets forth that the money is needed so that the light and water departments may be developed and give the city desired adequate service. It is also shown that if bonds are authorized and funds thus made available for these betterments, that motor trucks for the fire department can be paid for from the general taxation money now available, that the debt occurring thru the Morrissey deficit can be paid, and a floating indebtedness of $42,000 wiped out in the course of the three years remaining for the present administration.

The officials in asserting what can be done if the bonds are authorized, have outlined a program which is ambitious and not at all beyond the needs of Jacksonville. It certainly will be a proud day for the city and the administration if in three years from the present time light, water and fire departments are in a high state of efficiency and all deficits and floating debts are wiped from the slate. It seems clear from a reading of the statement that the commissioners are taking the ground that the great work proposed can be accomplished and that they will accomplish it if the people so desire. It is indicated plainly that the commissioners feel that this is not a matter in which they have any more at stake than do other citizens. The statement reads as if they do not intend to make the campaign a personal matter. They have outlined what can be done for the city's highest good and development. They declare that they are willing and ready to do the work and will guarantee the results.

Whether the bonds will be authorized and the accomplishment of this great work is possible is a question for the people to decide. Certainly the opportunity is at hand for Jacksonville to do better and greater things and to make possible this development the bonds should be authorized. There is no other way that the desired results can be obtained. Now is a favorable time for the sale of bonds at a low rate of interest and the ordinance outlines a procedure of refunding which will not make the same burdensome. The bond issue and the growth and development of Jacksonville are up to the people.

CENSUS FIGURES FOR THIS CITY ARE ISSUED

POPULATION SHOWS SOME INCREASE WITH BIG GAIN IN INVESTMENTS.

Cost of Materials and Values of Products. Also Indicate Growth—Statements Based on Investigation for Year 1914 and Compared With 1909.

Washington, April 3.—A preliminary statement of the general results of the census of manufactures for Jacksonville, Ill., has been issued by Director Sam L. Rogers, of the Bureau of the Census Department of Commerce. It consists of a summary comparing the figures for 1909 and 1914, by totals, prepared under the direction of Mr. William M. Stewart, chief statistician for manufactures.

The figures are preliminary and subject to such change and correction as may be found necessary from a further examination of the original reports.

The census of 1914, like that of 1909, with reference to manufactures excluded the hand trades, the building trades, and the neighborhood industries, and took account only of establishments conducted under the factory system. In the last census also, as in that for 1909, statistics were not collected for establishments having products for the census year valued at less than $500, except that reports were taken for establishments idle during a portion of the census year, or which began operation during that year, and whose products for such reason were valued at less than $500.

The word "establishment" as used in the census reports may mean more than one mill or plant, provided they are owned or controlled and operated by a single individual, partnership, corporation, or other owner or operator, and are located in the same town or city.

The reports were taken for the calendar year ending December 31, 1914, wherever the system of book-keeping permitted figures for that period to be secured, but when the fiscal year of an establishment differed from the calendar year a report was obtained for its fiscal year falling most largely within the calendar year 1914.

Percentages of Increase.
The population of Jacksonville at the census of 1910 was 15,326, and it is estimated that it was 15,500 on July 1, 1914.

The statistics represent the establishments located within the corporate limits of the city.

The summary for manufactures shows a considerable increase at the census of 1914, as compared with that for 1909, with the exception of wage earners, which shows a slight decrease. In the order of their importance, from a percentage standpoint, the increases for the several items rank as follows: Primary horsepower, 149.1 per cent; salaries, 194.8 per cent; capital, 18.4 per cent; materials, 4.1 per cent; wages, 2.7 per cent; and value of products, 2.4 per cent.

Capital Invested.

The capital invested, as reported in 1914, was $1,780,000, a gain of $277,000, or 18.4 per cent, over $1,503,000 in 1909. In this connection it should be stated that the inquiry contained in the census schedule calls for the total amount of capital, both owned and borrowed, invested in the business, but excludes the value of rented property, plant or equipment which was employed in the conduct of manufacturing enterprises. In the final bulletin and reports the rental paid for such property will be shown separately.

Cost of Materials.

The cost of materials used was $1,360,000 in 1914, as against $1,307,000 in 1909, an increase of $53,000, or 4.1 per cent. In addition to the component materials which enter into the products of the establishment for the census year there are included the cost of fuel, mill supplies bought either for speculation or for use during a subsequent period.

The census inquiry does not include amounts paid for miscellaneous expenses, such as rent of offices, royalties, insurance, ordinary repairs, advertising, traveling expenses, or allowance for depreciation.

Value of Products.
The value of products was $2,355,000 in 1914, and $2,299,000 in 1909, the increase being $56,000, or 2.4 per cent.

The value of products represents their selling value or price at the plants as actually turned out by the factories during the census year and does not necessarily have any relation to the amount of sales for that year. The values under this head also include amounts received for work done on materials furnished by others.

Salaries and Wages.
The salaries and wages amounted to $672,000 in 1914 and to $571,000 in 1909, the increase being $101,000 or 7.7 per cent.

The number of salaried employees was 163 in 1914, as compared with 91 in 1909.

The average number of wage earners was 932 in 1914 and 947 in 1909.

INFORMATION WANTED.

Commissioner Vasconcellos said yesterday that when residents notice any street lamps out of commission that his department will appreciate being notified to that effect. The light plant phone number is 583. Lamps reported out of order will be given immediate attention. It is not possible to patrol the streets each night to inspect lamps and citizens who send in information will be aiding in keeping the city well lighted.

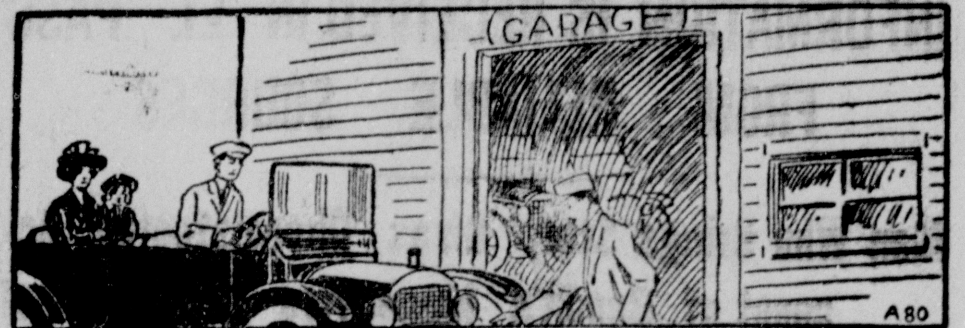

F. G. Buße is here from Peoria for a brief visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Buße.

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD MONDAY AFTERNOON FOR HART A. WITHEE

Large Concourse at Brooklyn M. E. Church for Last Solemn Rite—Pastor Speaks on God's Words of Promise.

The funeral of Hart A. Withee was held at Brooklyn M. E. church Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. W. W. Theobald, pastor. The services were brief but were of very impressive character. There was a large number of friends present to pay respect to the memory of the deceased. Music was furnished by Miss Carrie Spores, Mrs. Walter Hues, H. A. Brewer and James Guyette. There were a large number of floral offerings and these were cared for by Miss Anna Deters, Mrs. Alice Teeffey and Mrs. Ray Vasov. Burial was made in Diamond Grove cemetery and services at the grave were in charge of the Odd Fellows. The hymn "Shall We Gather at the River" sung by special request of Mr. Withee, was a touching feature of the service.

The bearers were H. C. Montgomery, W. C. Howe, J. W. Bowen and M. L. Hildreth, members of the Odd Fellows lodge; W. W. Holliday and O. L. Dompke.

The utterance of a length eulogy would be needless, said the pastor in beginning, as those who knew Mr. Withee know his virtues and strength of character better than words can express. "He loved things that are good. He was ever a lover of good books and took delight in communing with great minds as expressed in literature." "For now we know in part" said Rev. Mr. Theobald in taking his text from scripture. "In this life there are many things which we are not given to understand and it is well that we do

HAVE ERECTED NEW WAREHOUSE.
Simeon Fernandes and Sons have erected a new concrete warehouse on North East street. The new building was built with the product of the plant of the firm which manufactures all kinds of concrete building blocks.

It is expected that the building will be used as a storehouse for cement which the firm buys in car-load lots and for other building materials and supplies. The warehouse has a raised floor built he height of a freight car door so that material can be unloaded directly from the cars. It is the expectation of the firm that a switch will be laid to the new warehouse as it would greatly facilitate the business of the firm which has a large amount of material shipped during the course of a year.

Simeon Fernandes, the head of the firm when asked about the prospects of work for the coming season, was very optimistic. He said that they expect to have a banner year in building and concrete work. The firm now has a contract for concreting the entire basement of the Andre and Andre building and has already commenced work. The firm has a large amount of other work in prospect.

Mr. Muehlhausen has been a resident of Jacksonville just fifty years and he leaves many true friends to mourn his loss. Mr. Muehlhausen's age was 79 years, 6 months and 11 days.

The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Centenary M. E. church. Rev. G. W. Flagg, pastor of the church, will be in charge and Rev. W. E. Spoons, pastor of Northminster church, will assist. Burial will be made in the family lot at Jacksonville cemetery.

Mr. Muehlhausen was born Feb. 23, 1836, in Wittenhausen, Hesse, Germany. He came to America June 1, 1854, landing in Baltimore. A young man of 18, he secured employment in a tailoring shop immediately on his arrival. Five dollars a week was the wage received, and when by the kindness of a friend Mr. Muehlhausen was enabled to get a position which paid $12 a week, he felt for a time that sudden wealth had come to him.

On the voyage to America Mr. Muehlhausen made the acquaintance of a Jewish boy, traveling alone, Leopold Weil. During his years in Baltimore Mr. Muehlhausen prized the friendship of Mr. Weil especially as both were from the same section of Germany and spoke the same language. Without employment at the close of the Civil war, it was thru the generosity of Mr. Weil that Mr. Muehlhausen secured a position and came to Jacksonville to make his home.

Mr. Muehlhausen was married to Miss Katherine C. Metzmann of Baltimore and to them were born eight sons and three daughters. Albert, Louis and Elizabeth died in infancy and Augusta, the wife of John Berndt, passed away Aug. 16, 1888. The surviving daughter is Mrs. Alexander Rabjohns of this city and the sons are John A. Muehlhausen of Girard, Gustav A. George, William H., Otto and Henry Muehlhausen, all of Jacksonville. Mr. Muehlhausen leaves twelve grandchildren and four great grandchildren. Mrs. Muehlhausen died Aug. 29, 1882, and Mr. Muehlhausen was later married to Mrs. Caroline Runkel, who passed away July 18, 1911.

But a short time after coming to this country Mr. Muehlhausen enlisted for military duty as did a large number of German immigrants of that day. He joined the Maryland state militia and was a member of the company which pursued and captured John Brown in the famous raid at Harper's Ferry. The entire company enlisted for service in the Civil war and as a member of Company H, First Maryland Infantry, Mr. Muehlhausen served thruout the war and tho seeing service in Gettysburg and other hard battles, he was mustered out without a wound.

Mr. Muehlhausen came to Jacksonville in 1866 and after several years in the employ of Mr. Weil took a position as cutter for Joseph Tomlinson. He later engaged in business for himself and from time to time associated with him his sons. He sold his interest to the latter May 14, 1901, when sons of Mr. Muehlhausen embarked in business as Muehlhausen Bros. and the father retired.

An Odd Fellow for many years, Mr. Muehlhausen held the distinction of being one of the oldest members of Iliini lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F., and was always faithful to the tenants of the order. A man of unswerving industry and firm character, Mr. Muehlhausen pursued in life a course of steady success. He was fair and upright in all his dealings and in his passing there remains for friends and loved ones an unbroken memory of a life of good deeds.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY PLEASES LARGE AUDIENCE AT GRAND

"She Stoops to Conquer" Presented in Excellent Manner by J. H. S. Cast Monday Evening.

"She Stoops to Conquer" by Oliver Goldsmith, as presented Monday night at the Grand opera house by a cast from Jacksonville high school, showed dramatic understanding to a high degree. Each character seemed to catch the true spirit of the author and the zest with which this story of love in days gone by was made to live again would have done credit to actors of experience and maturity.

The part of Mr. Hardcastle was taken by Ernest L. Fernandes, with brusque yet kindly dignity. Mrs. Hardcastle was played by Miss Isabel Woodman with excellent effect. Frank A. Robinson as Tony Lumpkin, "graceless varlet" that he was, ever kept his audience in exciting suspense. As Kate Hardcastle Miss Zelda G. Benson showed inimitable charm and well did Miss Irene V. Smith take the part of Constance Neville, her cousin. Wilbur B. Rogers as Charles Marlow, played well the part of the haughty suitor and John W. Corrington as Sir Charles Marlow fitted his part to perfection. Marguerite Corrington as Dolly the maid, Paul Scott as landlord of the Three Pigeons and Albin D. Molohon as Hastings were greeted with appreciation and Russel Pinkerton as Tom Twist, Harry Howard as Jack Slang and Leonard Potter as Dick Muggins fitted their roles well. Digory, Roger and Thomas, servants of Mr. Hardcastle, were represented in apt manner by Leonard Potter, Russel Pinkerton and Harry Howard.

Miss Frances Marie Scott was director of the play and to her faithful watchfulness and diligence was success in large part due. The costumes, suited in every way to the play, were in charge of Miss Sophronia M. Kent and properties were cared for by Russel Pinkerton, Porter Corrington and Misses Laura Smith, Anna M. English and Esther Davis. Costumes for the play were furnished from Chicago and furniture was loaned by Andre & Andre. Properties were made by the manual training department. Miss Anna E. Day had direction of the seat reservation. Excellent music was furnished by the high school orchestra.

MISS HINRICHSSEN TOLD MINISTERS ABOUT STATE JAIL CONDITIONS

Statements Based on Inspection Made During Recent Months—In Many Counties Immediate Changes
Should be Made.

At the ministers' meeting yesterday morning Miss Annie Hinrichsen delivered by request a lecture on the jails of the state.

As much of her reports have already been published only a short outline of the excellent address is given.

The jails of our state are the worst of any state in the union and a fitting monument to the conditions of things in the early history of the state. Our forefathers thought criminals wild beasts who were to be treated as harshly as possible, confined in log or stone structures with little ventilation, wretched food and worse beds. We have progressed but little since that time. In Shawneetown I visited a jail which the people proudly declared was the oldest one in the state, but the conditions were fearful.

In 1874 some fairly good laws were passed by the legislature but they are not enforced. The crying evil of our jails is the fact that the inmates are not classified and segregated so that persons shut up for the first time and often when quite young are placed where they learn more crime. Some of our jails are under court houses, filthy and poorly ventilated; some are like stone blockades and some are iron cages.
The latter afford the best means for sanitary conditions if they have the proper attention.

In Chicago the conditions of the jails are frightful. They are absolutely loathsome and foul. In many other places the odor of the jail may be detected a block away. Springfield, Decatur, Peoria, Danville and other large places have abominable jails. A crying evil is the fact that nearly always persons shut up are those unable to supply bail. Those waiting for a meeting of the grand jury form the greater number of the inmates and it is a fact that less than ten per cent of the inmates of our jails are serving time for mis-deemeanors.

Some jails have one towel for a horde of inmates; one laundry tub
so that several men wash and wash clothes in the same water. Our own jail is the iron cage kind. At present when it has but fourteen inmates it is fairly decent but when it has 32 it is bad. There is in it a person hardly fit for the insane hospital and yet unfit for that place.
Then there are the repeaters; persons who habitually commit minor crimes are often sentenced. That shows we are not getting at the root of the matter.

On behalf of the association Dr.
Morey expressed his great appreciation of the excellent address made by Miss Hinrichsen and hoped the time would come when the grand jury would meet more frequently and thus save so much residence in the jail by persons so often released when they came to trial.

Capt. Mace of the Salvation Army emphasized the words of Miss Hin-richsen regarding the fearful condition of Chicago jails and also presented the cause of the proposed campaign for the army to procure improved barracks.

Miss Gladys Cochran and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Moon were present at the meeting.

CONCERNING HATS

"I've noticed that you always wear
a disreputable hat in the spring, Mr.
Toddhunter," observed the landlady,
"and I wonder why you do it."

"I do it," said the star boarder,
"because I am as wise as a serpent.
About the first thing the man of low mental force does, when spring approaches, is to buy a new hat, and he usually buys a more expensive one than he can afford, for there is something in the soft vernal air that impels him to recklessness, and he is inclined to hang the expense."

"As you doubtless are aware, Mrs.
Jiggers, the spring winds are tricky.
They are always doing the unexpected. If there is anything fills a spring wind with unholy glee, it is to see a man with a new hat. A woman may wear a new hat in the spring with comparative safety, for she can anchor it to her topknot, or tie a string to it and pass it under her chin."

"But a man is expected to take a sportsman's chance, and wear his hat on top of his head, without using belaying pins or other contrivances to hold it on. If he went forth wearing a new hat, with a pink ribbon around his face to hold it down, he would be loaded down with public scorn and contumely.
Now, a new hat never fits the human head. The haters have made wonderful progress in their art, in the past thousand years, but the idea of shaping hats so they will fit men's heads hasn't yet occurred to them.

"An old hat, that has been worn for months, is one of life's luxuries.
It feels as natural as one's hair, when placed on the head. In the spring I always dig up the hat I wore the previous summer and find great comfort and satisfaction in it. I can pull it down to my ears, where it fits so snug that you couldn't remove it with a shotgun, and I defy all the winds of March to take a fall out of it."

"I amble along, with my hands
in my pockets, on a blustery day, and haven't a grief or care. The wind that lifts my lid has to take off my head at the same time, and,
I have yet to see the wind that can pull off such a stunt."

"Meanwhile, my dear Mrs. Jig-gers, I behold indignant citizens chasing the new hats they foolishly purchased when the first robin appeared on deck. If ever a man looks absurd, it is when he is chasing his hat. The flying hat is the parent of all artful dodgers, and the citizen who pursues one should have gum boots and a dark lantern.
"Unusually the hat gets away, and is seen no more. Now and then the panting man who toils after it does catch it, and then he stands and weeps over it, for it is a ghastly ruin. If this explanation is satisfactory, Mrs. Jiggers, you may head the butter this way."

ALBATROSS TEAM DEFEATS HERONS AT Y. M. C. A.

The Albatross team beat the Herons last night in the regular games of the Senior League at the Y. M.
C. A. Gymnasium. The games were hard fought, and neither team had out its full line up so every player was in the game with vim. The Herons took the first game 11 to 4, but the second game the Albatross team came back strong and won out 11 to 7. The last game was fought out nip and tuck all the way thru but the Albatross team finally won out 11 to 10.

The next series was between the Sea Gulls and the Pelicans. The Sea Gulls won the first game by a big margin but the Pelicans ginger-ed up the second game and almost shut the Sea Gulls out, winning out 11 to 1. The third game was a dandy but the Pelicans got the best of the argument and took the game 11 to 7.

KELLY EXTRADITION CASE

INTERESTS CANADIANS

Washington, April 3.—Acting on the request of the province of Manitoba for early hearing on the appeal of Thomas Kelly, the millionaire contractor wanted in connection with the parliament buildings fraud in Winnipeg, the Supreme Court will hear the case this week. Attorneys from Canada are here for the hearing, and it may be reached today.

Kelly's appeal is from the decision of the federal court at Chicago in refusing to release him on habeas corpus proceedings from custody in which he is held for extradition.

Kelly objects to being forced to return to Manitoba, because, he claims, he does not wish to appear as a witness before the Royal Commission. There are charges against him in Winnipeg of perjury, conspiracy to defraud and obtaining money under false pretenses.

Kelly was arrested in Chicago on October 2 of last year. He had been living at Detroit Lakes, Minn., following his exit from Manitoba.

The charges of perjury deals with Kelly's evidence under oath before the Public Accounts Committee of the Manitoba Legislature. The conspiracy to defraud charge embraces practically the same evidence which have placed ex-Premier Roblin and other on trial before the Manitoba courts. The third allegation sets forth that Kelly received unlawful payments on the Parliament buildings contract in excess of $800,000.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jewsbury of the west part of the county were listed among the city arrivals yesterday.

One Dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy Drives Them Out—Ends Torture.

Stomach poisons breed millions of germs that eat into your vitals, causing Gas Pressure, Indigestion, Constipation, Torpid Liver, Auto-Intoxication, Yellow Jaundice, Gall Stones, Appendicitis, Cancer and Ulcers of the Stomach and Intestines, etc., etc. Thousands of sufferers have been restored by Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, among them Justice of the Supreme Court, Congressmen, Doctors, Lawyers, Bankers, Ministers, Nurses, Farmers, Mechanics—persons of every class—probably your own neighbors. "CASCARETS" BEST IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS SICK, CONSTIPATED

Best for Liver and Bowels, Bad Breath, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach.

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, indigestible food from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet, breath right, complexion rosy and your liver and bowels regular for months.—Adv.

NO TROUBLE TO REMOVE SUPERFLUOUS HAIR.

It is an easy matter to rid the skin of objectionable hair or fuzz, if you proceed as follows: Mix a paste with some water and a little powdered delatone, apply to hairy surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off wash, the skin and the hairs are gone. This method of removing hair growth is painless and does not mar the skin, but to avoid disappointment, be certain to get real delatone.—Adv.

TO HELP WOMEN.

Many of these, who cannot bear that other women should suffer as they did without knowing what to do, have written letters telling their experience to be published to the world. These honest, helpful stories are constantly appearing in the newspapers. Read them, ailing women, they are written with no motive but your good.—Adv.

CHAPTER 38.

The Artificial or Experimental Production of Anemia, Acidosis, Nervous Prostration, Interference With the Growth of the Young and the Breaking Up of the Natural Forces Which Enable Normally Nourished Animals to Resist Disease Can Be Brought About at Will on a Demineralized Diet.

"All the recent work done in the biochemical laboratories of the Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine proves beyond question that in all cereals, such as wheat, barley, oats and rice, there are series of important substances incorporated in the inner layer of the husk which are essential to the nutritive value of the grain." These are the words of Dr. Benjamin Moore, chief of the biochemical department of that institution.

"If these elements are eliminated in the milling or preparation of the grain, a diet largely composed of cereals or bread thus denatured will not only fail adequately to nourish the body but will tend to set up active disease."

"Certain of the diseases of malnutrition among children, notably rickets, scurvy-rickets, tetany and convulsions, present symptoms very similar to those we note in our white bread pigeons. So striking is this similarity that physicians who have followed up our work are already treating certain of their mal-nourished patients with a diet of whole wheat bread."

"Our nerves as a nation are much less stable than in the days prior to white bread diet. All our work suggests that the growing tendency of the age to neurasthenia, 'nerves,' etc., is not unlikely due to removing from our diet those very elements of cereal food which nature has hid in the husk of the grain, and which man in his ignorance discards."

A special meeting of the British Association and the Health Congress of the Royal Institute of Public Health was called at Portsmouth to consider the results of the work done by Hopkins, Eddie, Simpson and work for the reasons that the discussions usually take the form of ponderous scientific data and the people learn nothing of them.

Prior to the investigations of these British scientists an extensive research into the same subject had been conducted in France. Armand Gautier, internationally eminent, had explored the entire field of nutrition, inspiring numerous other French scientists to undertake work of similar nature.

All of them have arrived at one conclusion, which is briefly this. Man has lost the instinct of nourishing himself. The lower animals, when left to themselves, have an innate knowledge of the proper food, but it is necessary that mankind be instructed in a certain amount of scientific knowledge in order that a health-sustaining and disease-resisting diet may be selected.

Just one week before the grim day in which France became involved in the conflagration that spread over the nations of Europe in 1914, a little group of French scientists, inspired solely by good will toward man, and with no thought of the calamity which was so shortly to overtake the world, gave to humanity the results of their experimental research into the dangers of feeding with refined cereals.

Their conclusions were published in the Paris Medical, July 25, 1914. Born as they were in the agonies of a reign of destruction and death they possess peculiar significance to the people of the United States, who, a few weeks later, were advised by various uplift committees, seeking to solve the problem of war prices, to turn away from wheat and wheat flour and consume rice, rye, barley, corn and oats instead.

E. Weill and G. Mouriquand were two of the investigators who carried on numerous experiments with a refined and demineralized diet for the purpose of determining its effect on the nervous system, prostration, interference with the growth of the young, and the breaking up of the natural forces which, in the healthy, well-fed animal, enable it to resist disease.

Their conclusions, literally translated from the French, are as follows:

"To determine whether the effect of feeding pigeons with pearly barley would bring about the same loss of health as that which follows feeding with white flour we fed groups of birds with such barley, which, like refined wheat, is deprived of its germ and outer layers containing the mineral salts and vitamins of the seed."

"The pigeons thus fed showed similar waste and paresis of the limbs and wings as has been frequently noted on a white bread diet. These symptoms were followed by ataxic cerebellar of labyrinthine phenomenon—the animals falling backward or laterally with hyperextension of the limbs and head, ending in death. A cataleptic condition sometimes preceded death where there had been no previous symptoms."

Thus we find one more proof of the necessity in the diet of all animals of the despoiled mineral salts, colloids, and vitamins of which the American people, accustomed to the putrefied, whitest, and most anemic forms of refined white bread, are now being robbed.

We also found that our cereals, other than wheat, are also to be looked upon with grave misgivings. Just how significant those misgivings are will be presently revealed.

WHAT THE PAN-AMERICAN MOVEMENT MEANS.

By Hon. Andrew J. Peters, assistant secretary of the treasury, and member of International High Commission.

All Americans who read the signs of the times know that ours is an age of reconstruction. The world is undergoing vast and vital changes, affecting all peoples in all climes. We are living in one of those periods of social evolution that mark a new era in history.

Apart from the conflict that is transpiring in Europe, which is having marked influence on all the peoples of the earth, there are other causes for the changes being wrought in our own and other peaceful lands.

One is the broadening of the visions of men to the realization that boundaries are but artificial barriers separating peoples whose best interests lie in co-operation. We see our cities and towns co-operating more closely than ever before; the states are readjusting their laws and customs toward uniformity; the religious and race divisions of the United States are tending toward closer union.

The United States is now awakened to its broader usefulness in the world. From a struggling group of newly developed states, the country has come to that point in its development when it is able and ready to champion the great idea of mutual welfare among nations.

The Pan-American conferences are the result of this broadening of the American spirit. President Wilson sounded that keynote of the negotiations that are bringing the American republics more closely together in friendship, while in an address delivered at Mobile in October, 1913, he said to representatives of the Latin American states: "The future is going to be very different for this hemisphere from the past. Interest does not tie nations together; it sometimes separates them. But sympathy and understanding do unite them."

It was this spirit that actuated the big financial congress that met in Washington last May. Our neighbors to the south responded to the earnest call, and the groundwork was laid for mutual understandings. And it is this spirit that sends our party to Buenos Aires to join in the first general meeting of the commissioners from the various American countries.

Trade, which is a potential factor in individual lives, holds the same importance in international affairs. It is commerce, therefore, that forms the first common meeting ground. That topic holds today the attention of men of affairs and of governments, and there is manifestly a general desire to clear away the debris and the cobwebs and get down to business.

PRESIDENT TO AIM AT HEAD PIN.

Washington, April 3.—If President Wilson hits the head pin when he bowls the first ball at the Atlantic Coast bowling tournament tonight, he will have every bowler in the country shouting for him. When the president promised to hurl the first ball, he made it clear that he was no adept at knocking things down. But his eye will be on that head pin, whether the ball decides to roll true or seek the gutter.

F. B. Rains of Peoria was attending to business matters in the city yesterday.

MONDAY IN CONGRESS.

Met at noon. Resumed debate on the army bill. Judiciary committee postponed until Tuesday consideration of Brandeis nomination. Resumed at 5:15 p. m. to 11 a. m. Tuesday.

JACKSONVILLE'S NEEDS

With reference to the proposed Bond issue election the city commissioners yesterday issued the following statement:

We, your commissioners, as your representatives, wish to report and recommend the adoption of the $100,000.00 Bond Issue, covering a period of twenty years, by your votes. Here are the facts, as we see them:

We need a larger supply of pure water from the North pumping station. Our idea is to install 24 inch shutter screens, iron cased wells and screens, with rotary, direct connected, deep well pumps (and to retain the present pumps as now situated); to construct a large receiving reservoir between the deep well pumps and the rotaries that force the water into the mains and the reservoir on the Hill. In order to get a main capacity from the North End Station to the reservoir, it necessitates the laying of a new ten inch main for a length of some two miles from the station, up Allen Avenue to Walnut Street, west on Walnut Street to Diamond St., and south to West State Street. This main will nearly double the capacity and reduce the friction head, thereby making a great reduction in operating cost. That part of the City lying west of Park and Webster Avenues has not had sufficient water pressure from the reservoir for their needs, unless the water tower was in service.

It is entirely too expensive to pump all the water used for the entire City, up and thru the water tower, for the good service that may be obtained by those west of Park and Webster Avenues. As it is now, the water must be pumped into the tower or reservoir. Our plan is to form a separate water circuit for the City west of about Park and Webster or Sandusky, which will be connected directly to the water tower, the tower to be kept supplied from the reservoir on the Hill by a rotary pump, motor driven and automatically operated, so, as long as there was water in the reservoir, the tower would be supplied. All the rest of the City would be supplied by the pressure from the reservoir as it is now. This, we think a necessity, and an arrangement that will give satisfactory service to all consumers, at the least cost of operation.

A 2 million gallon capacity rotary motor driven pump at the South pumping station, which connected to our City Plant for current, would allow the closing down of the steam part of the plant, thereby making a saving of $3500 to $4000 per annum. The South Station is an emergency station and would not be dismantled until a full and sufficient water supply is definitely assured for all purposes, from the North pumping station. Then this rotary would be installed at the North Pumping Station.

We need new electric service lines to the reservoir on the Hill and to the North and South pumping station and to Nichols Park. Our street lines need renewing and extending. Our lighting and generating plant needs at least one generator of 500 H. P. capacity, in addition to what we have now. With this unit installed, we for power and lighting at as low cost as any and considerably less than we could purchase it.

When the present Commissioners came into office, we felt, heir among other things, to the present electric light plant and street lighting, together with the water system as we now have it. It has been and is retained and re-established thru many trials and difficulties; but to the credit of Jacksonville, the plant is a good income producer; besides, the streets are fairly well lighted. Proper installation all at one time will reduce the cost of operation enough to meet the annual payment of this Bond Issue.

Other things we felt heir to were a floating indebtedness of some $42,000 and a deficit in the final settlement of street improvement bonds, when all assessments were paid, of over $22,000. Some may say that this deficit is not an obligation of the City; but the City was derelict in its duty in the past by not having sufficient surety Bonds to cover every possible loss; therefore, we are liable. Besides, Jacksonville will not, nor can it afford to repudiate any of its moral obligations.

We also felt heir to the present Fire Department equipment, good in its way, but out of date, too slow and too expensive to maintain. The State Bureau of Insurance in the summer of 1913, made a survey of the Water Department and Fire Department equipment. This survey was thorough and comprehensive in detail. The report on this was that Jacksonville was enjoying a lower rate of fire insurance than it was entitled to, with the present water facilities and fire department equipment. The suggested that we increase the water supply and add a reservoir at the North pumping station, enlarge our Power plant, and put in motor fire apparatus; that then our fire insurance rates would not be increased and might be lowered. But if the suggested improvements were not made, the rate would be raised by putting Jacksonville in a lower class. This raise would amount to about $12.00 on each $1000.00 insurance.

It is plain that if Jacksonville does not provide a way to make the required improvements (which we should have for other reasons), then the insured will pay more extra rate on their insurance per annum than the annual payment on this Bond Issue will amount to. The people of Jacksonville do not have anything to say about what the insurance rates shall be, but they must and will carry insurance, whether it is high or low; therefore we should make preparation to get the lowest rate possible.

The adoption of the Bond Issue will make it possible to properly and permanently enlarge and rebuild the Light and Water departments, so that the general taxes collected may be used to purchase and pay for the two motor fire trucks, liquidate our Improvement Bond deficit and entirely dispose of the floating indebtedness, within the next three years. The receipts of the Light and Water Departments will pay for the operating of the same, meet the annual payments on the Bonds, and make extensions to the plant that may be desirable and be required. You know that if Jacksonville had lost or leased its Water Plant to the Jacksonville Water Co., we would now be paying annually out of the Municipal taxes, $9,000 per annum for the hydrants alone, which we now have free, besides the income from the water. Further, by the electrifying of the water machinery and combining the light plant and the power as one, we practically get the current thrown in for street lighting which was $12,000 per annum.

Citizens of Jacksonville it is your Light and Power Plant, Water Department, Fire Department and City. We are your representatives. We have carefully gone over this whole matter, and now recommend that you adopt the Bond Issue, by your votes; for your interest and the financial welfare of the present and future of Jacksonville, needs this service of income. Commissioners will come and go, but the light and water and fire departments will go on forever. Let us build for the future now, and have the benefits and the economy of operation now and hereafter.

LENTEX SERVICES AT GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

Second Cantata Is Well Received by Good Sized Audience Sunday Night.

Sunday evening the second of the Lente Cantatas given by the choir of Grace Methodist church came to a performance. The work chosen was Maunier's "From Olivet to Calvary." In the performance of this work the chorus reached its highest mark for this year. The work is a beautifully melodious one, abounding in effective choruses and in beautiful solos for soprano and alto voice. The chorus was well balanced and distinguished itself by its precision of attack, effective shading, clear enunciation, and good phrasing. The solos were in the capable hands of Miss Rena Lazelle, soprano, and Miss Lena Hopper, contralto. These young ladies were in excellent voice and produced a profound impression with their work. In addition to the cantata, Miss Lazelle sang "Jerusalem Thou That Killst the Prophets," from the oratorio of "St. Paul" by Mendelssohn.

No small amount of praise for the success of the concert and the high degree of efficiency that characterizes all the work of the choir is due Prof. Henry V. Stearns, who presided at the organ in his usual masterful manner. Mr. Stearns is also exceedingly proficient as chorister and his general manner wins the ready and constant co-operation of every member of this large chorus choir.

GRACE S. S. BOARD MEETS

Rev. E. K. Towle, who will conduct the Lente services at Grace church, arrived in the city last evening and addressed the meeting of the Sunday School Board. He will speak at the prayer-meeting Wednesday evening.

PREDICTIONS OF SHORT WINTER WHEAT CROP BRINGS PRICE RAISE

Market Closes Strong at 4 1/2 to 4 3/4
Cents Net Advance—Corn and Oats Gain.

Chicago, April 3.—Wheat ran up 5c a bushel in value today, chiefly because of predictions that the domestic winter crop this season would be 165,000,000 bushels less than the yield in 1915. The market closed strong, 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 net higher, with May at 12 1/4 and July at 1 1/8. Corn gained 1/4 to 1/2 and oats 1/4 to 1/2.

In provisions, the outcome varied from the same as Saturday's finish to 10c higher.

Foreigners took hold freely in the buying of future deliveries of wheat and besides purchased 750,000 bushels for immediate export. In this connection decided significance was attached to word that reserves of wheat in Holland were exhausted, and that the Dutch government had decided to obtain in America 100,000 tons over and above the ordinary monthly quota.

Today's top figures showed that in a week, the market had made an extreme gain of 13c a bushel.

Corn strength was derived mainly from wheat. Oats were bullish affected by reports of delay in seeding in some sections.

Provisions advanced with grain and hogs. During the late transactions, the realizing sales by holders wiped out most of the gains.

Chicago, April 3.—Sharply higher prices on hogs resulted today from a decided falling off in the number of arrivals. Cattle too were scarce but sheep and lambs over plentiful.

STOCKS OPEN WEEK WITH A WIDE VARIETY OF GAINS

Advance Embraces Almost Every Part of the List Except the More Potential Investment Issues.

New York, April 3.—Stocks opened the week with a wide variety of gains that embraced almost every part of the list except the more potential investment issues. Rails were barely steady, at occasions heavy, New York Central suffering another temporary setback.

Trading was of the same desultory character as that which attended the major operations of the preceding month. A further lack of public interest was noted, but this was partly counterbalanced by greater activity in well known specialties, such as Crucible Steel and American Locomotive in the war group, the motors, sugars and distilling issues.

United States industrial alcohol was in the forefront throughout the session, making an extreme gain of 9 1/2 to 16 1/2 in connection with unconfirmed reports of an approaching melon cutting.

Stocks of no special designation followed the movement of specialties with gains of 1 to 3 points.

Total sales of stocks amounted to 5,100,000 shares.

Moderate unsettlement was shown by the foreign exchange markets, sterling, francs, marks, lire and Austrian bills weakening irregularly with slight improvement in Dutch and Scandinavian bills.

Total sales of bonds, par value, were $1,260,000.

United States registers 3s declined 1/2, the coupon 3s 1/4 and the registered 4s 1/4 on call.

Coupons 4s rose 1/4.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Juan, Porto Rico, March.—As a result of action taken by the Regional Conference attended by representatives of all of the Protestant churches supporting missions in Porto Rico, denominational lines are to be practically abolished and cooperation is to be effected among the churches in the various forms of mission work here. The Conference was one of the regional gatherings planned at the recent conference at Panama, which are being held throughout Central and South America, Cuba and Porto Rico.

Representatives of several of the mission boards of churches in the United States, under which all of the Protestant missions in Porto Rico are directed, attended the conference and favored the consolidation of the Protestant work here.

Formal action by these various boards, however, is necessary before plans for cooperation in the island can be carried out.

The conference voted for the formation of an Evangelical Union, to include all of the Protestant churches and missions in Porto Rico, and hereafter all missions will be under the direction of this Evangelical Union instead of having the work directed by the various mission boards in the United States. This will eliminate the use of the names of the various denominations in connection with the various missions.

The conference also favored the support of but one English church in the larger cities of the island and to carry out this suggestion of the conference several congregations representing different denominations are planning to unite at an early date.

Reports at the conference showed that Porto Rico was more liberally supplied with Protestant mission churches, schools and hospitals than any other country in the West Indies, Central or South America. As a result of the plans for cooperation it is expected that some of the denominations will withdraw their missionaries and send them to other countries where there is greater need for their efforts.

In the conference representatives of the Presbyterian, Congregational, Methodist, Baptist, Christian, Lutheran, Protestant Episcopal and Disciples of Christ, participated. Dr. L. G. Barnes of New York, secretary of the Baptist Home Mission Board, presided at the conference and headed the delegation from the United States appointed by the Panama Conference.

Berlin, March.—The war ministries of Prussia, Saxony, and Bavaria have declined to grant the refusal of the "Society for the Protection of German Industry," which recently asked that to each invalid or ex-soldier mustered out of active service for good cause, some distinctive medal or distinction be given to indicate his service.

The chief ground for the refusal is that it offers no protection against falsification. Those discharged soldiers who have been wounded or decorated, says the Prussian ministry, almost without exception give ocular evidence of the fact that they have served their Fatherland. Those ex-soldiers who show no outward signs of disability are always able with their military papers to prove what they have done.

The society wanted either a ribbon or a medal, presumably as a protection for former soldiers against the implied stigma of unfitness for service, since the average young man who has not some physical defect either has already enlisted or been drawn into the army.

London, March.—The British government has found a place in the army for the conscientious objectors, men called up for service under the Derby recruiting scheme who had conscious scruples against fighting and who were excused from enlisting. There were thousands of such and to give them a chance to serve their country, altho at the same time cater to their little vanity against bearing arms, the War Office announced the formation, for the period of the war, of the Non-Combatant Corps.

The officers and non-commissioned officers will be selected from regular infantry personnel not fit for general service, but fit for service abroad on lines of communication.

Companies of the new corps will be trained in squad drill without arms and in the use of the various forms of tools used in field engineering. The privates will be equipped as infantry, except that they will not be armed or trained with arms of any description.

Pay will be that of infantry of the line, but the men enrolled in the new corps will not be entitled to draw working pay, nor the proficiency pay given to others for professional skill in arms. Officers and men transferred to this corps from other regiments will receive infantry pay, together with proficiency and service pay.

Paris, March.—A periscope in the hands of one of the spectators caused a mild sensation at the Odeon Theatre the other evening. It was a reduced copy of the periscope used by soldiers in the first line trenches, enabling them to see over the parapet without being seen.

There was considerable speculation as to the occasion for its use in the theatre since ladies hats are barred. One theory is that many society people, during the hard times of war, are taking to the balconies and galleries and that their friends in the orchestra will resort to the periscope in order to inspect their latest evening costumes.

Southampton, Eng., March.—Substantial evidence of the rigid enforcement of the anti-treating law was given in this English shipping town the other day when a man was fined one pound ($5) for treating his wife to a glass of wine in a public drinking house, his wife was fined an equal amount and the barmaid who served the drinks was fined five pounds, ($25).

Copenhagen, Denmark, March.—Official announcement is made here that 2,500 Danes have lost their lives in the war while fighting on the side of Germany. They were Scandinavian natives of the province of Schleswig, which has been for 50 years in possession of Germany.

Peking, March.—Forsythe Sherfesse, former chief of the forest service in the Philippines, has arrived in Peking and assumed his duties of director to the Chinese forest service, which is a department of the ministry of agriculture and commerce.

Vienna, March.—The Austrians are engaged in rebuilding and repairing a large part of the city of Belgrade. Besides restoring the public buildings, 100,000 panes of glass have been replaced and 12,000 new keys made.

Zurich, Switzerland, March.—All Austrian and Hungarian newspapers now arrive in Switzerland without their advertisement sections, which are said to have been removed by order of the censors.

Berlin.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—A careful study of the effect of the noise of cannonading on animals, both domestic and wild, which has been made by veterinary surgeon Dr. Reuter, has produced some unexpected results.

He has determined that those animals which normally are most "scary" and apprehensive are almost the least to be affected by the explosion of shells.

Both the highly trained and developed horse and dog seem to be most profoundly affected. Both are liable to nervous shock from which it takes as long as three weeks to recuperate. Collie dogs are least of all affected, and therefore are preferred as Red Cross dogs in the field.

The nervous shock from exploding shells is so great that it often times brings horses up in their tracks apparently incapable of moving. Horses occasionally fall down and give every appearance of having been shot, the actually unhurt. Dogs suddenly and unaccountably go lame, the untouched.

The intense cannonading in the west has driven huge numbers of game over into Switzerland, to Luxemburg and to portions of France over which the war has passed. Mice and rats not unnaturally take to the earth when anything frightens them, and the Germans in France has been surprised to note an increase in the number of these animals.

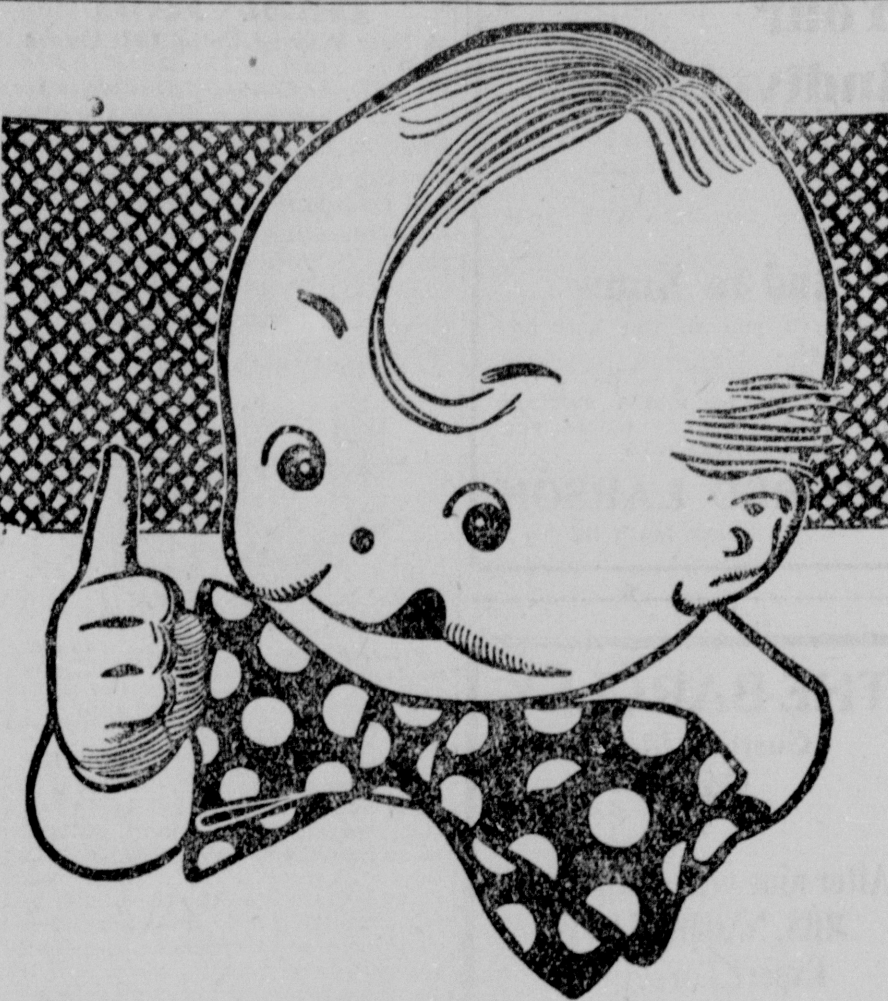

The song birds, especially, refuse to be driven from their accustomed haunts by cannonading, so that there are today about the normal number of larks, orioles, thrushes and finches near the lines. The owls, sparrows, hawks and crows also seem little disturbed by the noise.

Panama.—All the large 14-inch guns for the Panama canal defenses are now on the isthmus and soon will be in place in the fortifications at either end of the waterway. The single 16-inch gun for the top of Perico island has not yet been shipped from the United States and it is not known here when it is to be shipped.

All the fortifications now under way are rapidly nearing completion and soon will only require the mounting of the big rifles to complete the work.

Transporting and mounting the huge 16-inch gun on Perico island will furnish the engineers with an interesting problem. The island is more than 100 feet above sea level and conical in shape. It now has a railway line twice about its circumference at a very sharp curvature. A special railway car with swivel trucks will be constructed to take the 110-ton gun to its final resting place.

Washington.—Responding to a general demand throughout the country for a table of contents to be printed with each edition of the Congressional Record, the journal published daily during the sessions of congress and which prints verbatim the proceedings and debates of both the senate and house of representatives, the house printing committee in its revision of printing laws has provided for such an index. That action was taken principally because of a request by the American Library association, which reported that many libraries, thru their patrons, regularly make use of the daily edition of the Record and that under the present arrangement of the contents of that publication it was difficult to find readily topics which are of great public interest and importance, and which have been referred to in the newspapers. At present an index is published every twelve days

Alkali Makes Soap Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mul-sified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr.
Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after-effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

A little Zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes all skin eruptions and makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy.

True Secret of Keeping Youthful Looking

(The Beauty Seeker.)

"The real secret of keeping young-looking and beautiful," says a well-known hygienist, "is to keep the liver and bowels normal and active. Without these requisites, poisonous waste products remain in the system, polluting the blood and lodging in various organs, tissues, joints. One becomes flabby, obese, nervous, mentally sluggish, dull-eyed, wrinkled and pallid of face."

"But to get liver and bowels working as they ought, without producing evil after-effects has been the problem. Fortunately, there is a prescription of unquestioned merit, which may now be had in convenient tablet form. Its value is due largely to an ingredient derived from the humble May apple, or its root, which has been called 'vegetable calomel' because of its effectiveness—though, of course, it is not to be classed with the real calomel of medicinal origin. There is no habit-forming constituent in 'vegetable calomel'—that's the name—and their use is not followed by weakness or exhaustion. On the contrary, these harmless vegetable tablets tend to impart tone and elasticity to the relaxed intestinal wall. Sentinal tablets, which may be procured from any druggist—a dime's worth will do—will prove a revelation to any constipated, liver-troubled person."

The Constipation Curse

Constipation—clogged bowels cause pain and sickness; 95 per cent of our ills, say the authorities. Sentinal Laxatives bring quick relief. All vegetable—contain no calomel. Ten doses for a dime at any druggist. Physician's sample free, upon request, if you mention this advertisement. The Sentinal Remedies Co., Inc., 800 Madison Ave., Covington, Ky.

OBITUARY.

Word was received recently by W. T. Clarkson of the death of his sister, Mrs. Charles W. Fry of Aurora. She passed away March 25 at 1 o. m. o'clock at the home of her husband's parents in Bloomfield, Iowa. She was ill only three days and her condition was not considered serious until the day before her death. Her going was a great shock to everyone.

Maude Clarkson was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Clarkson, who formerly resided in Pittsfield, Ill. She was born July 20, 1880, near Winchester, Ill., and at the time of her death was 35 years, 8 months and 5 days of age. In September, 1909, she was married to Charles W. Fry, who survives her, together with her mother, Mrs. P. P. Clarkson; two brothers, William F. of this city and Walter E. Clarkson of Harrison, Idaho; also four sisters, Mrs. Lillie Belle Johnson of Benton, Wash.; Mrs. Lena Anson of St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Etta Vaughn of Keokuk, Iowa, and Mrs. Minna Butrey of Des Moines, Iowa.

Funeral services were held March 27 at the residence of C. E. Fry in Bloomfield with Rev. George E. Purdy and Rev. H. B. Scales officiating. Several beautiful songs were rendered by a quartet consisting of Misses Barrickman and Hummel and Messrs. Welch and Davis. There were many beautiful floral tributes, among them being a large piece with the word "Sister" from the family. Interment was made in the L. O. O. F. cemetery at Bloomfield, Iowa.

Mrs. Fry united with the Christian church when quite young. She was of a lovable disposition, cheery and good natured and made friends wherever she went. News of her passing has brought sadness to many hearts. While it is now hard to realize that it was best for her to go in the noontide of life when everything seemed so bright, yet "sometime we will understand." And even tho there are many sorrowing relatives and friends, they sorrow not as tho they had no hope.

"Her sun hath gone down while it was yet day," is a fit quotation for one who was called home at the time when life seemed to mean so much to her. In view of this thought, the following verses seem appropriate as a loving memorial to her comparatively short, yet useful life:

"In the flush of early morning,
All is rosy; all is bright;
And we think not of the shadows
That may lengthen ere the night.
But alas! the shadows gathered
Even while we all were gay,
And the sunlight of our dear one,
Faded while it still was day."

"Oh! how heavy seems this shadow,
Shutting out her rays of light
Which we'd learned to love and cherish."

Gone forever from our sight,
Stay—oh! has she gone forever!
No! oh no! she lives for aye!
She lives! although her sun has faded—
Faded while it still was day!

"Though on earth she is not with us,
Tho we'll see her here no more,
Yet we know that she is waiting
On the happy, golden shore.
We shall some day go to meet her,
There we shall forever stay,
And forget we lost our loved one
In the noontide of her day."

PLANS ARE FORMULATED FOR SALVATION ARMY CAMPAIGN

Chairmen Announced for Local Committees—City Divided Into Eight Sections—Meeting at Y. M. C. A. Next Monday Afternoon.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee held yesterday afternoon the plans for organizing the working force for raising funds to improve the Salvation Army quarters were formulated.

The city has been divided into eight sections, business and residence. The lady workers in the First Ward under the leadership of Mrs. Alice Coombs will have territory commencing at City Limits on North Main street to the Wabash tracks, thence east to Ashland avenue, south on Ashland to State street and east to City Limits. The remaining section of the First ward will be solicited by George W. Vasconcellos and committee.

The Second ward workers will be under Mrs. F. H. Cogswell and will have as territory the district bounded by the city limits on the north up North Main street to Independence avenue thence west to Church, south on Church to State, out State to city limits.

The remaining section of the second ward will be solicited by Rev. W. E. Spoons and committee.

The Third ward will be under the supervision of Mrs. J. H. Danskin. Mrs. Danskin will have as her territory all of the Third ward except that portion bounded by S. Main to College street, east to College street to Clay avenue, north on Clay to State, west on State to square, which will be solicited by W. J. Brady and committee.

The Fourth Ward will be in charge of Mrs. G. T. Hollinger and Mrs. H. V. Stearns and they will have the territory bounded by State street from the city limits east to Church south on Church to College street, east on College to South Main, thence south to city limits. The business district or remaining territory in this ward will be solicited by Mayor H. J. Rodgers and committee.

The heads of these eight districts have not as yet appointed their workers, but same will be announced at a later date. On Monday afternoon at 3:30 in the Y. M. C. A. building, a meeting will be held at which time all committee will be present and the plans of the campaign explained in detail.

The Salvation Army is doing in Jacksonville a great work, yet owing to inadequate quarters they are unable to serve fully those whom they reach. The citizens of Jacksonville should and will enable them to carry on this great work.

HAS RETURNED FROM SOUTH.

Mrs. Myrtle W. Tandy has returned from the south where she has been for several months in company with her husband who is representative of the Rand-McNally company of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Tandy spent some time with their son, George Tandy, who is a student at the University of North Carolina. She reports a splendid visit and ideal weather and good roads. They shipped their car south and much of their time has been spent in motor-ing. Mrs. Tandy returned home in order to attend a meeting of the Orphans' Home board, I. O. O. F., of which she is a member which will be held at Lincoln this week. Mr. Tandy expects to be in Jacksonville Friday for a brief visit but will return to the south to finish work for the Rand-McNally company, which requires his time until July.

CARL DIVERS SENT TO JAIL.

Carl Divers was arrested Monday by special deputy sheriff George R. Cain on the charge of burglary and larceny. Divers was taken before Justice Dyer and his hearing set for April 6 at 9 o'clock. In default of bond in the sum of $300 he was sent to jail. Mr. Cain has been missing change from the cash drawer at the warehouse on West Lafayette avenue. Saturday he placed a dollar bill and a silver dollar in the drawer which were marked. The money was found on Divers. He claimed to have won it in a crap game. Evidently Justice Dyer doubted the truth of his statement.

BROUGHT PATIENT

TO HOSPITAL.

Sheriff Tandy and Thomas J. Marleas of Decatur brought George Barlos, a patient to Jacksonville State Hospital yesterday. Barlos is a Greek and his trouble was caused by being hit on the head with a water bucket by a fellow employee while in the employ of the Wabash railroad company at Decatur. Sheriff Tandy is a relative of Mrs. John G. Reynolds and Mr. Marleas is an interpreter for the Greeks in Decatur and was in the city at the time the four Greeks were burned by a gasoline explosion at Bluffs.

NEW MINISTER AT WOODSON.

The Rev. Mr. Latham, the new minister at Woodson Presbyterian church, arrived in that village Saturday. Sunday he preached two splendid sermons to large congregations. He made a good impression and the members of the church are much pleased with their choice. There will be regular prayer meeting services at the church Wednesday when it is hoped that there will be many members to meet the new minister. The Rev. Mr. Latham has been at Nauvoo, Ill., and comes with a fine reputation as a preacher and an organizer of church bodies.

FINE POINT CLUB MEETING.

The Fine Point club will meet with Mrs. Henry W. English, 806 West College avenue, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Members will please bring or send money for concert tickets.

ASSOCIATED PRESS CORRESPONDENCE

Tokio, Japan, April — As reported by cable, negotiations are in progress between Japan and Russia, chiefly at Petrograd but also at Tokio for the purchase by Russia of several warships which fell into the hands of the Japanese navy during the Russo-Japanese War.

The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that Russia wished to have Russian warships participate with those of Japan and Great Britain in the bombardment of the German fortress of Tsing-Tau, and to that end negotiations with Japan for the return of some of her old ships. For some reason or other the negotiations fell thru at the time, presumably over the question of price, but they were reopened a few weeks ago, and at the present writing there is every prospect that several ships, probably three, will be turned over to Russia for a consideration.

Japan secured possession of about fourteen Russian warships as a result of the Russo-Japanese war. The vessels mentioned as likely to be transferred include the cruiser Soya, formerly the Varyag, the battleship Tango, formerly the Russian warship Poltava, and the Sagami, which during the war with Russia was known as the Peresviet. The Soya was captured by a squadron under Prince Higashi-Fushimi off Cape Soya in the northern coast of Hokkaido.

The Tango, the old Poltava, was captured at Port Arthur, on February 1, 1905. She carried four 12-inch guns. Her displacement is 10,360 tons.

The Sagami, a battleship of 12,674 tons, also carries four twelve-inch guns. She was captured by the Japanese at Port Arthur.

The question for Japan to settle was whether the turning over of the ships would seriously weaken her own system of defense and she has presumably decided that the transfer does not vitally change her naval strength. Moreover, it is likely that a modern dreadnought would be constructed with the proceeds of the sale which are placed at from 15 to 20 million yen, or from about $7,500,000 to $10,000,000.

The impression exists here that should Russia acquire the warships they would be sent to the Baltic to strengthen Russia's naval force there and protect merchant marine plying between Russia and the United States. Early in the present war Japan turned over to Russia the hospital ship Aneawa, formerly the Angara which became a Japanese prize of war in the battle of the Sea of Japan.

BOND ELECTION DATE NAMED BY COUNCIL

$100,000 ASKED FOR LIGHT AND WATER IMPROVEMENT WORK.

Voters Will Have Opportunity to Authorize Issue of $100,000 May 16th—No Indemnity Insurance
This Year—Flusher Bids Opened
—Polling Places and Election
Judges.

The city council at the Monday morning session gave first reading to an ordinance calling for a $100,000 bond issue to provide for the extension of the city lighting and water departments. Another ordinance fixed the election date for May 16. After the session Mayor Rodgers issued a statement signed by all the commissioners setting forth succinctly the reasons for calling a bond issue.

After the routine business of the council Commissioner Widmayer made a report suggesting that no action be taken with reference to securing indemnity insurance this year as the city is without an appropriation to pay the premiums, which would amount to about $2,000. The recommendation by Mr. Widmayer was approved. On motion of Mr. Martin with a second by Mr. Widmayer, the second reading of the proposed health ordinance was indefinitely postponed. Bids were received for a street flusher and after some little discussion, were referred to Commissioner Cox to investigate and report.

Commissioner Martin said that there had been a good deal of complaint about the bad condition in the C. & A. yards where heavy wagons loaded with coal are frequently mired. He suggested some action might be possible to require the paving of the property. Mayor Rodgers did not think this could be done, but it was agreed that Mr. Martin would take the matter up with Alton officials to secure whatever relief is possible. The Burlington yards are paved with brick and the Wabash yards were improved somewhat a few years ago by the addition of several car loads of crushed rock.

Bad Sidewalks Listed.
The question of sidewalks received some consideration and it was reported that there had been a great many answers to the advertisements which appeared in local papers asking for locations where walks are needed. Mr. Cox said he also had on file a list of such locations which would amount to several miles.

Bids were opened for a street flusher and were as follows: E. D. Elmyre & Co. of Oregon, Ill., $1,195; Studebaker company, $1,325; another type, $985; Sanitary Street Flushing company, St. Louis, $945. H. W. Warren of the Studebaker company spoke briefly describing the apparatus offered and said it represented the best experience of a reliable firm and that it would carry an absolute warranty of satisfactory work.

L. R. Craig, district manager for Elmyre & Co., claimed various advantages for the flusher his company sells and said that the company specializes in oilers, sprinklers and flushers and is fully guaranteed for the work. He maintained too, that the flusher will work more satisfactorily on pavements that are in bad repair than is true of some other flushers now in the market.

On motion of Mr. Widmayer all properly approved bills were ordered paid when funds are available. The ordinance repealing the ordinance providing for the opening of Mathers street was given a second reading and adopted. City Engineer Henderson asked if the building of a sidewalk there across the C. & A. right of way would increase the liability of the city. Mayor Rodgers said he had consulted City Attorney Reeve on this subject and did not believe that the proposed walk would in any way affect the city's liability.

Reports of Officers.
Reports of officers were received as follows:
R. L. Pyatt reported collections thru office of city clerk, $18.66; from Diamond Grove cemetery, $292; Jacksonville cemetery, $121.50.
Miss Weller, city matron, told of a number of cases she had investigated and taken the necessary action. In one family there were three children in need as the father was in jail and the mother had not been able to secure work. One girl had appealed to her on account of her miserable home conditions and several children and parents had talked to her and asked advice.
The report of the water department signed by Commissioner Vasconcellos and Superintendent Cobb showed total collections of $2,869.85, divided as follows: water rents, $2,802; meters, $60; repairs, $7.85.
Harry Summers, sexton of Diamond Grove cemetery, reported twenty-two burials made in March. John Pires, sexton of Jacksonville cemetery, reported nine graves made in March.
Report of Charles B. Graff, city treasurer, showed a balance in the general fund of $9,450.56.

Bond Ordinance Read.
The ordinance providing for the issuance of electric light and water improvement bonds to the amount of $100,000 fixes the number of bonds at two hundred and the denominations of each bond at $500, bearing interest at 4 per cent, payable semi-annually; $5,000 of the amount of the bonds to become due on the first day of July of each year beginning in 1917 and ending in 1937. For the purpose of providing for the payment of principal and interest of the bonds there shall be levied and collected a direct annual

For the year 1917 the sum of $9,000
For the year 1918 the sum of $8,800
For the year 1919 the sum of $8,600

For the year 1936 the sum of $5,200

Provision to meet the requirements above shall be included in the annual appropriation ordinance for each of the years mentioned. The bonds are to be issued and sold from time to time as the proceeds are needed for the purpose authorized by the ordinance.

REVIVAL SERVICES IN PROGRESS AT MEREDOSIA M. E. CHURCH

Rev. W. L. Selby is Proving a Forceful
Leader in the Special Religious Effort—Announcements Made for the Week.

The revival services in progress at the Methodist church in Meredosia conducted by Rev. W. L. Selby, conference evangelist of the Iowa conference is growing in interest and attendance each evening. Rev. Selby delivered three forceful sermons Sunday. In the morning the subject was: "Profit and Loss" or "The Price of a Soul." In the afternoon his sermon to men only was on the subject of "Ye That Are Men Now

Rev. W. L. Selby.

Serve Him" and in the evening "Where Art Thou?" He is a logical and forceful speaker and of a pleasing personality. As an evangelist is wise, spiritual, tactful and kind. He delivers strong sermons and is a man intensely in earnest about his work. His hearers are made to feel that he has a clear Divine call to the work of evangelism and that his greatest desire is to be a soul-winner. He makes a sinful life look hideous, dealing vigorously with sin, but lovingly and gently with the sinner.

Following is the program for the week:

Tuesday afternoon—"Consecration."

Tuesday evening—"Sick Christians."

Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock—Children's service.

Wednesday evening—"Sleepy Church Members."

Thursday afternoon—Women's meeting.

Thursday evening—"Jonah and the Whale."

Friday afternoon—Subject to be announced.

Friday evening—High school night and all others, especially young people invited.

Sunday in addition to the regular services there will be a lecture sermon to "Men Only" entitled "Safety-First", which is especially interesting to the young men.

During the revival special musical selections have been furnished by the Ladies Quartette composed of Mesdames O. W. Gould, James McLain, Will G. and J. H. Looman and Miss Rena Hyde and Mr. Elmo Galaway in solo work.

On Saturday a group of ladies visited the homes in Meredosia inviting all the meetings the coming week.

A CORRECTION: GALENA.

NOT GALESBURG.

By some error the Journal said Sunday morning that Galesburg was flooded when it should have said Galena. Galesburg is not favored with any kind of a stream to do any overflowing and is not under water; the place is on the water wagon.

GOOD INTEREST MARKS BEGINNING OF SECOND WEEK OF REVIVAL

The Ten Lepers Text of Strong Sermon at Centenary Church Monday Night—Special Prayer Services This Forenoon.

"Christ Can Give Purity" was the subject of a strong sermon by the Rev. G. W. Flagg at Centenary M. E. church revival last night. Attendance was good and the interest displayed at this Monday night service promised well for the entire week. Mr. Moon sang "Rescue the Perishing," while Mr. McClelland of the Illinois Woman's college, and Mr. Fleet echoed the chorus. Mr. Flagg took as his text the story of the ten lepers. As Christ purified the lepers, so can He purify us, said the pastor. As He felt the ingratitude of those who did not return, so does He feel our ingratitude when we accept Christ in our hearts and do not declare our Savior before men by uniting with His church. Sunday at 2:30 o'clock a meeting for women was addressed by Mrs. Moon. The talk was an inspiring one and all who came felt more than well repaid.

Special Prayer Meetings.
As a preparation for tonight's service four special prayer meetings will be held this forenoon—as follows:

Mrs. S. H. Larimore, on East State street, leader, Miss Mercy Jackson.

Mrs. J. A. Paschall on West North street, led by Mrs. F. E. Kneels.

Mrs. W. B. Rexroat on East College avenue, led by Mrs. Rex J. Moon.

Mrs. Lewis Kelly, South Diamond street, led by Mrs. H. M. Rowland. Large congregations were at the morning and evening services Sunday which were inspiring and abounding in interest. At the morning service a splendid song service preceded the sermon. Misses Katherine Rapp and Dorothy Smith sang impressively, "Sweetest as the Years Go By." Mr. Moon sang as a solo, "My Redeemer and My Lord" by Dudley Buck.

The subject for the morning service was "Severity of God," and was based on John 15-2, "Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away; every branch that beareth fruit he cleanseth that it may bear more fruit." The sermon was a most direct one. The speaker showed that as the fruit was produced by the new wood of the vine following the pruning of the husbandman, so in the spiritual world the fruits of the soul follow God's training and dealing with us.

At its close the members of the church were called forward in a consecration service. This was followed by a meeting of the men of the church in the Sunday school room to make some plans for definite personal work.

Sunday Evening Service.
A great audience filled the main floor of the auditorium Sunday evening and it was necessary to open the gallery where over one hundred were accommodated. This was one of the best services held in Centenary for some time.

It was opened by a song service beginning promptly at 7 o'clock which lasted for almost an hour. The chorus has never appeared better and the congregational singing was enthusiastic and spirited. Almost the entire song service had been requested by those who have been attending the services the past week, who have become familiar with the songs. "The House that Stood the Storm" was first given with "Brighten the Corner where you are." "In the Garden" and many others closing with the magnificent "Awakening Chorus" by Gabriel. Mr. Moon sang as a solo "The Best Friend to Have is Jesus," the chorus of which was hummed by the members of the chorus.

The opening prayer was offered by Secretary A. L. Snyder of the Y. M. C. A.

"I was blind but now I see," an expression made by the blind man who was healed at the pool of Siloam by Jesus was the basis of the evening sermon. It was one of the best delivered during the series of services. Most graphically Mr. Flagg painted a word picture of the condition of the blind beggar as he sat by the wayside asking alms. Jesus heard his appeal and making a plaster of clay he applied it to his eyes and had him wash in the pool of Siloam when he was healed of his blindness.

Those who come to him now are given a broader vision and a deeper meaning of the things of this life.

NOTABLE COLLECTION OF ART WORKS AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Exhibit Includes Pictures by Artists of Country Wide Reputation—Will Be Here Two Days Longer.

The unusual exhibit of painting at Illinois Woman's College will continue today and tomorrow. Then the pictures will be repacked and expressed to South Carolina. Up to yesterday the total number of visitors who have inspected the pictures was more than 2,000 and there has been a general expression of appreciation to the management of the college for bringing the exhibit within the reach of Jacksonville people. The collection, which includes forty-five pictures valued at from $200 to $4,000 each, was assembled by the American federation of arts from twenty-eighth annual exhibit of American oil paintings held at the Chicago art institute during November and December. The pictures are by such well known artists as E. Irving Couse, Charles Rosen, George Wesley Bellows, Mary Green Blumenschein, Karl Albert Buehr, Edgar Cameron, Charles W. Eaton, Charles Hopkinson, Birge Harrison, Robert Henri, A. T. Van Laer and Charles Morris Young.

The management of the college has made it possible for public school pupils, teachers, members of various clubs and organizations to inspect this notable collection of pictures without cost. Years ago when the Jacksonville Art association was in its prime the annual art exhibit was considered a great event. While the collection had merit, it did not include nearly as many pictures by well known artists as the one now on view at the college. There remain two days more during which these splendid pictures can be seen by Jacksonville people.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our relatives and friends for their kindness and will help during our recent bereavement and loss of our mother and wife.

COMMUNICATION.

To the Journal:

I may be puffed up with false pride as to the right and wrong side of things and confess I am as nervous as a school boy rehearsing his first oration at a Fourth of July celebration. But there are a few things that I lose complete control of those said nerves over, and the following will explain. It may appear to some of the "town folks"—who have spent most of their life on a farm—very annoying to hear the honk and the push of the break pedal of your car and the slow down when you push the accelerator and speed up on both and neither start. But to my mind there is nothing worse than a cow bawling all night in your neighbors back yard and the baby calf answering, "all right ma, right here in the shed." This is what we call "nerve wrecking." A subscriber

At all ceremonial sessions the music is a feature, and the orchestra last night added very largely to the success of the occasion. The musicians were Clarence Large, Thomas E. Drake, Earl White, Glenn Skinner, Charles Sheppard, George Gerlach, M. E. Gilbert and William Suhy.

Among visitors were George Bundy, G. T. Wilkinson and George Bundy Jr., Roodhouse; Edward King, White Hall; John Carter, Virginia and R. F. Martin Palmyra.
